Brief Description of CSF at Penn State:

CSF is an evangelistic/discipleship fellowship based on Jesus' words in Matthew 28:18-20. The fellowship, which draws 65-85 active members, gathers for praise and worship Tuesday evenings. Covenant Groups (small groups) meet throughout the week. CSF's Ministry outreach is designed to live out Biblical truths found in Matthew 25:31-46 and I John 3:18. Social activities include hayrides, campfires, movies, broomball and lots more. Short mission projects and retreats provide opportunity for service and spiritual growth.

Expectations:

Leadership is a key to an effective ministry. CSFPA is a faith-based ministry relying on faithful contributions of individuals and congregations. Therefore the campus minister is expected to be a primary support raiser for his ministry. CSFPA is looking for someone who can lead others to the Lord, who is experienced in one-on-one discipleship and also can mentor others. As an effective communicator with young adults, the campus minister should consider himself a lifetime student of scripture and the world in which we live. The campus minister must share a conviction that every area of study in academia is a study of God's creation and human alienation from Him, therefore helping students develop a Christian world and life view is vital to ministry. Finally, one of the essential qualities of a campus minister is a passion for God. The campus minister will have a big impact on young lives and must lead by example. Just as Paul states, "Follow me as I follow Christ", so the campus minister must be an open book for students to observe and understand.
